WEDNESDAY, JAN. 11, 1899.

There is no necessity for a long session of the Legislature. A short session means a lot of business, and that is what the people want.

The "big" has had a serious grip on the people all over the country during the past week, and has interfered with business to a great extent.

The thirty-fifth has already had some of his plans for the crop of this year. The who works without a plan does not bring in the sheaves of grain at the time with great economy.

Mr. W. P. Houseal is assumed to be the challenger of the Northern Obispo. He was one of the founders of the Obispo, and is an experienced politician. We extend him the right hand of fellowship and wish him success.

Gen. Ludlow, military governor of the department of Havana, has appointed Ex-Gov. John G. Evans to succeed the Marquis de Estero as Mayor of Havana, and Mr. Evans has named his duties last Monday. Jazgety is no doubt happy.

We see it announced that the Southern Railway Company will from the first of the year restore to its employees the rates prior to the end of '98. It is a pleasing item of news for others even beside the employees. It smacks of the era of good feeling.

Congressman Norton is quoted as saying that the issue of free silver in the next presidential campaign will be relegated to the rear by the issues growing out of the war. In our humble judgment if the Democrats will do this they will sweep the country next year.

The various farm journals in the south are taking up the discussion of the "all-cotton plan." We can see no opportunity for a change from the present paper producing system until the landowners and advance merchants co-operate with the tenant-slave in a plan by which the soil can be made to produce the southland. It will require co-operation to bring about a change and prosperity.

There is much opposition from Confederate veterans to the bill of Senator Butler, of North Carolina, to pension ex-Confederate soldiers, and to representative Hixey's bill to admit Confederate veterans to soldiers' homes. Many petitions have been received by members of Congress from the South, from Confederate survivors' camps, asking them to use their influence to defeat the two bills. Senator Mc Laurin and Tillman are both opposed to the bills, as are also a majority, if not all, of the South Carolina members in the House of Representatives.

In their presentment to the Court of General Sessions last week the Spartanburg Grand Jury gave a most excellent recommendation with regard to the ever interesting dispensary question. They recommended that it be so amended that each county shall manage its own dispensary and enjoy all the profits therefrom; that the State dispensary be done away with; that each county be allowed to vote on the question as to whether it will have a dispensary; that the law be enforced by the regular county officers as other laws are enforced, thus doing away with the constabulary. These recommendations are worth the attention of the Legislature.

It is unfortunate that the teacher's profession is not more highly esteemed, so that the ablest men and women might be attracted and remain in it. Men of the largest abilities usually find greater inducements in other professions. Under the present conditions a man of great ability, unless he is a philanthropist, can scarcely afford to devote his talents to ordinary educational work. If we are to have better education we must have a higher appreciation of its importance. We must learn that the solution of educational problems requires the highest order of intellect, skill and wisdom; so far from being a mere routine of appointing lessons and hearing recitations, it is a professional work requiring the highest intellect and moral capacity.

The Chattanooga Tradesman has compiled statistics showing the growth and development of the Southern States in the past 10 years. The figures are based upon reports sent by officials of each State. The summary shows wonderful growth in the Southern States in population, wealth, capital, railroads, manufactures, agriculture and education since the census of 1880 was taken. The increase in population has been 19.9 per cent, the total now being 17,550,920, divided as follows: Whites, 11,361,906; colored, 6,194,024. The increase in the white population has been 22.2 per cent; in colored only 10 per cent. There are 475,430 persons of northern birth in the south against 210,385 ten years ago. The assessed wealth is $2,841,057,164, and the actual wealth is estimated at $9,751,815,635. The State debts aggregate $96,460,126; county debts, $29,511,573; municipal debts, $66,909,748. Total public indebtedness, $192,881,447. The capital invested in the south during the decade reaches $2,339,170,000. The mileage of the railroads is 111,118 and the men employed number 188,731. The number of manufacturing establishments is 56,174, with a capital of $551,483,600; hands employed, 537,086; value of products, $178,222,000. Of cotton and other products, the value of cotton increased during the decade. The value of all farm products, $178,222,000. The value of all farm products, $178,222,000. The value of all farm products, $178,222,000.

E. C. V. Reunion.

Having been appointed a member of the Executive Committee of the E. C. V. Reunion for Anderson county, I have with a cheerful and unflinching devotion and patriotic sentimentality of the homes of the Confederate army to contribute towards defraying the expenses of the reunion of the E. C. V. Confederate Veterans, which will be held in Charleston, to May next.

From all the South, battle-scarred heroes will pilgrimage there to answer the call of duty, and once more in life to stand side by side before passing where the smoke of battle still hangs around them.

Coming from every section of the South to meet in Charleston, where secession victory, where Wagner remains a glorious remembrance, where Sumter sits in a frame of uncomparable bravery and where the very cradle of secession was and for the memories there concentrated in these survivors were made heroes and veterans, they will come to partake of our hospitality.

Charleston invites each county to assist in the entertainment of this sacred gathering, and feel that Anderson county will do her share. That it may be known how much will be given I respectfully ask contributions to be handed to Mr. J. C. Watkins at Anderson, S. C., or to myself at Hickory Flat by February 1st.

Respectfully,
D. K. NORTON.

A Marriage at Burdine

As the mantle of darkness was hiding the beautiful day of Dec. 28th, a large crowd of friends and relatives were gathered around the residence of Mr. J. R. Tripp to witness the marriage of his only daughter, Miss Essie Tripp, to Mr. Hubbard Smith, and at 6:30 o'clock they were most solemnly united in wedlock by Rev. T. C. Ligon, of Piedmont. The attendants were Mr. Luther Smith with Miss Marion Pickens, Mr. Lawrence Merritt with Miss Alma Smith. After the ceremony the crowd was ushered into a beautifully decorated dining room with a table in the center laden with exquisite fruits and delicacies. After supper they re-entered the parlor, where every one enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

On the day following the wedding party attended a reception tendered by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith. This table was also laden with fruits and candies, and it was a glorious sight to see the young folks eat and enjoy themselves. After dinner they repaired to the parlor, where they talked and played to each other's delight.

The bride and groom were dressed in beautiful costumes, and received many beautiful and useful presents.

A dance was given at Dr. W. A. Tripp's in honor of the wedding party.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Maluria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to Liver and Kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, Sleeplessness and Melancholy. It is purely vegetable and mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed only 50c. a bottle at H. H. Orr Drug Co.

Harry D. Watts, a prominent young country man of Charleston, S. C., was found dead beneath one of the large oaks of the Marshlands, and his body was found in a pool of blood. The door was in place, but was hung and it is supposed that in going home some time between 2 o'clock and day he ran against the door, knocking it down and crushing himself to death. He was the son of Captain Harrison Watts.

A HAPPY CHRISTMAS AND A MERRY NEW YEAR

To all the good people of Anderson and of Anderson County; to all the good people for 50 to 75 miles around this hustling little city; to all the good people everywhere whose knowledge, forethought or instincts have led them to recognize and acknowledge a good thing when they see it; to all the bright, far-seeing people throughout the length and breadth of this pushing, progressive community who from selfish or philanthropic motives who for self preservation or for pity's sake have so generously allowed their inclinations to lead them this way, C. S. Minor, the infomitable, and the Great and Good 10c. Store sends greeting and wishes you a Happy Christmas and Merry New Year.

We wish to thank you for the most liberal patronage it has ever been our good fortune to enjoy. This comes as a grand climax to a decade of pleasant and prosperous business relations with you which we trust and believe has been mutually satisfactory. We do not believe there has been anything approaching our good fortune for the past ten years, and it is with much pleasure that we place the praise where it justly belongs, at the feet of a discriminating public. And again we wish to extend our special thanks to those who have so kindly felt a friendly interest in us and have lost no opportunity of passing it down the line that this is the Place and we are the People.

To begin the New Year right we propose to cut the bottom right out of the old ship and let her sink or swim on her merits. We are going to clean up our stock now for a purpose and that purpose we shall tell you about later. Now look out! here's the way we start it off:
